RE: GlassCraft Door Company Unveils Innovative ThermaPlus™ Entry Doors

GlassCraft Door Company unveils its latest innovative product line, the Buffalo Forge Steel ThermaPlus entry doors, which combine the strength of steel and the jobsite flexibility of composite. The result is a groundbreaking steel door product that is also thermally-broken, field-trimmable, fits into existing frames, secure, and costs half the price of premium steel doors. ThermaPlus utilizes an 18 gauge steel that is strong and dent-resistant, all composite edges, and a patented BioFoam™ core. Available in 3 design collection: Solid Panel, Contemporary, and Wrought Iron with 6 finish options and multiple sizing. Windstorm rated options are also available.
